A deposit of 10 per cent will be required of each and every buyer.

minor lots of soiled and mussed goods, we bought only the choicest lots, securing, as it were, the cream of the stock. We bought heavily, too, the aggregate of our purchases being greater than the combined total of the balance of the local concerns—a fact which our invoices will verify. The majority of the goods run parallel with our regular lines and could easily be sold at the regular prices, but that's not our method. We bought on the basis of 40 to 65 cents on the dollar and offer you the same saving. Remember, the quantities are limited in a num-

Fine Undermuslins and Infants' Wear.

From the Salvage Stock of Wolff & Marx, San Antonio, Tex.

AINTY white garments show the Soil so easily, and this lot of goods looks to be in pretty bad condition. However, the damage sustained was by water only and can easily be effaced by laundering. In their present condition they do not look very inviting, but a critical examination of the qualities, styles and the trimmings will clearly convey to your mind their character and how beautiful they will appear after being washed and ironed. There are about 1,200 garments in all, strictly the highest class, including a lot of real French Lingeriewith hand-embroidery work and trimmed with handmade laces. We bought them at less than fifty cents on the dollar and so may you. Ninety-five per cent of the women appreciate the true value of undermuslins, and this lot at the prices they are offered represent such remarkable
